Board Interview:

All applicants with a complete application file by November 1 may be invited to interview with Congressman Deutch’s nomination board. This panel of experts will meet with each applicant and make recommendations on their readiness for the rigors of academy life and military life.

Short Answer Questions:

Please submit your answers to the following questions on a separate sheet of paper, typed, single-spaced, with a limit of one half page per response.

1. Describe an instance where you were called upon to demonstrate leadership, and how you rose to the challenge.
2. Academy life is academically and physically rigorous, and personal time is very limited. How rigorous have your high school years been, and how have they prepared you for the demands you will face?
3. Academy life is about the “we” not the “me”. Describe how you have worked as part of a group to achieve a shared goal.
4. What makes you stand out as a strong candidate for a nomination to one of the military academies?
